Honorable Guests, Participants and Colleagues, Namaste!

Nepal Veterinary Association (NVA) proudly announces its megaevent, the 12th National Conference, to be held in Kathmandu from 1-3 June, 2016. NVA is the only organization representing 800 Nepalese Veterinarians working in Nepal and abroad. The Association has been involved in various activities related to animal welfare, animal health and overall welfare of Veterinary profession since its establishment 48 years ago.

NVA is aware of global herculean task to make available safe food to all keeping in mind, "Veterinarians for One World One Health" as the slogan of this 12th conference.

NVA invites all the members, Scientists, policy makers and other stakeholders in the field of livestock and poultry production to participate in the forthcoming conference. Veterinarians and related stakeholders of livestock and poultry industry are expected to meet at one place. Moreover, the warm and pleasant weather of Kathmandu will make your stay comfortable.

Hope to see you all in the conference!

General Information

Nepal is a panoramic country, rich with snow covered Himalayas in north, artistic monuments of world heritage value, wildlife and diverse cultures. The country is popularly known as "Land of Mt. Everest, Birth place of Lord Buddha (Lumbini) and Land of Lord Pashupati Nath". The country is proud of its different cultures evolved from diverse farming system resulted from wide climatic variation due to altitudinal effect and settlement of different ethnic communities harnessing the nature for their livelihood.

Kathmandu is the capital, the city of temples and is famous for its natural beauty and people's hospitality and is a favorite destination for tourists.

Weather

Kathmandu's weather and temperature varies according to season with very cold and harsh winters and mostly hot monsoon summers. Kathmandu never becomes as warm as other locations with same latitude because of its elevation of around 1500 meters. June first week, the conference time, is the end of spring and start of monsoon season. During this time a temperature may range from 30°C-33°C. You can check the weather update in www.accuweather.com.

Travel and Board:

Tribhuvan International Airport (TIA) is located only 7 km from the center of the city. The airport is connected with Delhi, Middle East, Thailand, Malaysia, and Singapore by leading airlines including Nepal Airlines. Prepaid taxi can be booked from TIA to reach to hotel or conference venue.

Kathmandu being a tourist hub, a variety of hotels are available for stay.

Visa:

Visa can easily be obtained from Nepalese Embassy/Consulate abroad or on arrival for nationals of most of the countries at Tribhuvan International Airport (TIA), Kathmandu. Please check the website www.nepalimmigration.gov.np for visa requirement.

Banking and Currency:

Nepalese Rupee (NPR) is the official currency of Nepal. US $ 1 is equivalent to NPR 105 and varies on daily basis. Please check www.nrb.org.np foreign exchange rate. ATM machines of different banks are available at many locations where money can be withdrawn using visa or master cards. These cards are also accepted by many hotels and leading stores.
